CAN YOU HELP?

(This letter was sent to the RCGS by Mrs. Marjorie Clemens, 5843 First Ave. S. W. , Cedar Rapids, Iowa 52405-4019.)

Dear Editor,

Throughout 1996 Iowa is celebrating 150 years of statehood. In connection with this event some Eastern Iowa cousins are organizing a Homecoming Reunion for the descendants of their early Iowa ancestors.

David and Holly Skinner Scott settled in Jackson Co., IA, in 1836, a full ten years before Iowa was admitted to the Union. They were parents of 14 children, nine of whom left descendants.

Several of David and Holly's children moved on west and several settled in Kansas. One granddaughter is believed to have married S. L. Thornton and settled near Sawyer, Kansas. Old postcards from the early 1900's, postmarked Sawyer, are signed by the following cousins: John Thornton, Will thornnton, Marnie Thornton, Ella Thornton, Mrs. Jesse Cromer and Mamie Bowlds.

Another family with a Scott connection settled in Reno and Kingman Counties, KS, near Pretty Prairie in the mid 1870's. This was the family of John and Harriet Young and several of their grown children.

If any of your readers believe they are descended from these families or have knowledge of them, please, contact the Reunion Committee in care of Marjorie Clemens (address above). Thank you .

VOLUNTEERS

Ann Lambert and Irene Kleiber have volunteered to help in the Kansas Room. A schedule giving the names of the volunteers and the hours they help in the Kansas Room will be included in a later issue. Lydia Streeter needs a helper. Will you volunteer?

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

My term as President will soon come to an end. Thanks to the Board Members for their attendance and support. Also, thanks to the members that secured programs and to those that gave programs during my term. Best wishes to the incoming President.

ITALIAN RESEARCH: After many years of quietude Italian-American genealogy has recently come to life. Over 5 million Italians have emigrated to America, with over 3.5 million arriving in this century. After Italy was unified in 1859 emigration restrictions were relaxed. However, emigration to America was slowed by the Civil War. Prior to 1876 northern Italians were brought in by padroni who recruited gangs of unskilled and unmarried laborers, which they furnished to American employers, until this practice became illegal under American law. Immigration from southern Italy and Sicily began in earnest about 1876 as part of the so-called "New Migration" and peaked in the 1920's. Most Italians, like the Irish, were crammed into the tenements of New York City, Boston, and Baltimore. Unlike other ethnic groups the Italians are unique in that about 25 percent of them later returned to their villages and remained there. An Early guide was Italian Americans: An Annotated Bibliography, published by Gale Research Company in 1978. The best recent guide is a softback by John Philip Colleta, Finding Italian Roots: the Complete Guide for Americans, 128 pages, published by Genealogical Publishing Company in 1993. Also useful is Joseph G. Fucilla, Our Italian Surnames (1949) also published by Gen. Pub. Co. as a 1993 reprint. The Italian Genealogical Society of America, P.O. Box 8571, Cranston, RI 02920, issued its first newsletter in the Fall of 1994.

CENSUS CHANGES??: There is a move afoot to ask the U. S. Census Bureau to include the maiden name of all married women as an item when future censuses are recorded. If you are in favor of this, please send a letter to: Henry Scarr, Acting Director of Census Bureau, Dept. of Commerce, Washington, DC 20233 with copies to your Senators and Representatives.
